

Communication, Languages and Literacy

Phonics and spelling rules & patterns

Read non-fiction texts to identify features

Write non-fiction texts about mountains, volcanoes and the Romans

Calligrams and shape poems

Knowledge & Understanding of the World

Volcanoes and earthquakes

Use maps and atlases to locate mountain ranges and name them

Chronology

Romans in Britain

Moon Class Spring 2015 Active Planet

Science

Nutrition

Skeletons and muscles

Forces and magnets

Personal, Social & Emotional Development

Preparing to be an active citizen

E-safety / cyber wisdom

Mathematical Development

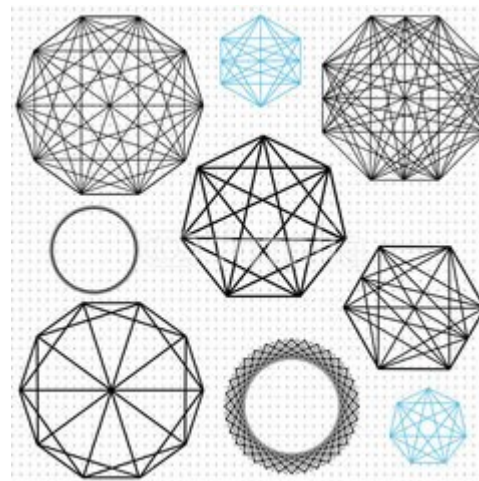

Using a range of practical resources, continue to develop confidence and understanding in:

Number and place value

Using the four operations (+ - x ÷)

Geometry and properties of shape

Data handling—pictograms and tables

Creative Development and Computing

Build a volcano

Exploring volcanoes and mountains through the medium of textiles and drawing, exploring texture and colour

Learning word processing skills to enhance their work using IT. Children will also learn to use Word and Power Point effectively

Through Photostory children will create a visual story through digital photos

Exploring duration in music